05/29/2008

STAMFORD, Conn.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--

One lucky WWE(R) fan's dream came true today as his new, custom built WrestleMania XXIV Chopper stormed through his hometown of Lexington, Mich. and right up to Wyatt Crawford's driveway. The meticulously detailed motorcycle was the grand prize in the Custom WrestleMania XXIV Chopper Sweepstakes which took place in March leading up to the big event, WrestleMania XXIV, at the Florida Citrus Bowl in Orlando.

As both a WWE fan and a chopper enthusiast, Crawford was one of almost 33,000 entries who logged on to WWE.com for the chance to win the custom motorcycle built by the hugely successful "American Chopper" television series. The popularity of both WrestleMania and "American Chopper" also contributed to the nearly 630,000 pageviews WWE.com received for the contest.

Taking over a month to complete, the motorcycle is a one of a kind, highlighting customized paint, an air cleaner featuring an official WWE ringside bell, a primary cover fit with the WWE Championship title, the title's medallions as mirrors, a custom derby cover, and spinning WWE rims.

Wyatt, a DISH Network(R) subscriber, purchased WrestleMania XXIV on pay-per-view and can't wait to see the finished product unveiled in his driveway. DISH Network, the nation's third largest pay-TV provider and the digital transition leader, offers a variety of pay-per-view options for its more than 13.8 million subscribers. Jennifer Leslie, general manager of programming for DISH Network said, "We are proud that a DISH Network subscriber is the winner of the WrestleMania XXIV Chopper Sweepstakes and we wish him the best."
